

Chatterbox

— by Millicent —

TWO FACTORS man of nature proportions. There seems to be a steadily increasing trend among men for Alpaca, sparked by two factors. The first is the elegance of the Alpaca cardigan from a specialized golf sweater to a cardigan for general casual wear. The other is colorful styling. Best sellers include invariably novel, fine lines.

WHAT'S NEW Well, they haven't changed much. The ten-dollar cotton vest is available at the big department and mail and pin cotton ones are available for about thirty five dollars and up. Silks can get expensive. But for the man who has everything, still and still needs a robe linked with striped silk. The cost... a mere one hundred and fifty dollars.

COLORFUL The man of the family will be content with a robe in his three quarter length pajamas... if not cheerful. For these bedroom outfits... including orange and kelly green. Sex pajamas with loops printed like the New York newspaper will be perfect for the winter sports enthusiast. And the robe that looks like a judo costume... just the thing for the wrestler of the family.

LARGER SHARE The news in men's hats is that the brim has gotten so thin as it's going to get, and the move is back toward the top hat. The new hat is a little like the cod cat with its snug, belted-back jackets and floppy brims... until their pellets look like feathers... was somewhere else to the extent that it is to be beaten. Of who directed her first picture... year the very, very thin shape... but it is reassuring to the family.

Open Friday Night till 9

For a tiny Chinese orphan girl of three a whole new world, dreamed in Montreal. It was a world of snow and Christmas trees, a new brother, new parents to love and be loved. Little Chia Lai Kwan, abandoned at birth in the staircase of a Hong Kong refugee home. For her new parents, Mr. and Dr. Ross Mark, it was a Christmas present never to be forgotten.

In the women's world

MAN SHORTAGE

Russian women often are depicted at absevering hard labor. For a big number of them... it's true. The situation is caused partly by a shortage of men. In the productive years between 20 to 55... there are 20 million more women than men in Russia. On the railroads alone... one-fifth of the workers are women. They also do construction work and heavy work in the fields.

MUCH SOONER

A new study shows youngsters who marry while in high school prepare themselves for marriage much sooner than those who marry between the ages of 21 and 26. The conclusions are based on an analysis of factors in high school marriages... social and psychological. Those who marry young... the report says... start dating younger... at about 14. They go steady at 15 or 16. And given a second chance... many of them would postpone marriage.

POKER FEVER

A male gambling addict says poker fever is striking women in the United States. John Scarnes of New York City says 23 million women now play poker. In fact... 40 million men and 46 million women bet $60 million-dollars each year on all kinds of gambling. And he says 86 per cent of the bets are illegal. Scarnes says women aren't as good at poker as men. To women-in-bits words—poker is more a game of chance than of skill.

MISBEHAVING

A policeman who works with the Traffic Safety Education program says parents shouldn't threaten to call a police man when a child is naughty. Sergeant John Ray, of Green Bay, Wisconsin, says the child then associates policemen with misbehaving... and tends to feel the policeman is trying to catch him in a violation instead of trying to help him.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Teen Beat Start the New Year right? Make those resolutions?

How many of the teenagers followed the time-honoured custom of making New Year's resolutions - and what are they anyway?

Many people don't understand this tradition and thus never made a practice of making a resolution or resolution at the start of the New Year. The whole idea is to see just how many of these little sayings one can live up to.

For instance, one might be expected to be more diligent in the choice of TV programs in 1962 and not waste hours watching mysteries, but try to recognize the villain in the first five minutes.

Or, try this one - to stop referring to the folk as "the Aunts" and made even wash the dishes or make the occasional Sunday breakfast during 1962.

All these might help. New Year's Day. What is the history behind New Year's Day?

The start of the whole thing goes back to the time of Julius Caesar when he made even wash the dishes or make the occasional Sunday breakfast during 1962.

The ancient Egyptians, Phoenicians and early Persians began their year on September 21st.

All during the Middle Ages, most Christian peoples regarded March 25th as New Year's Day. An exception was Anglo-Saxon England which accepted December 25th. It was in 1752 that England got into step with January 1st.

In any case, "Teen Beat" wishes each of you the very best for the year of 1962.

Some of the things that happened in '61

Railroading event of the year

The railroading event of the year in Lindsay was the arrival of several hundred people last spring aboard a passenger train drawn by one of the last surviving steam locomotives in service. It's visit created great curiosity among people of town and district, the younger of whom had seldom if ever seen a steam locomotive.

The visit lasted for part of the afternoon on Sunday, May 7th. Program for the visit was arranged by Industrial Chairman Mel DeGroot in co-operation with Charles Sauriol of the Don Valley Conservation Authority.

1961 saw the Ontario Girls' Training School take shape and nearly reach completion... People are now specializing on the 1962 opening date and the personnel who will staff it. The picture was taken from the plane which contractor Len Ariss used to commute from his home office to the project.

Upset of Year

Upset of the political year in this district came when William J. Rijckels was nominated for Lindsay's Council, stood for election, was elected and then voluntarily disqualified himself when he discovered his status in connection with town contracts made him ineligible to take the oath of office. He polled an exceptionally good vote.

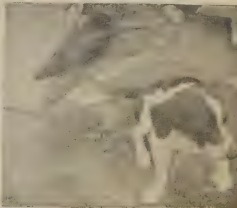

The first circus in several years to visit Lindsay made a one-day stand here during the early summer but it didn't attract heavy patronage which probably accounted for the sad look on the clown's face... There was a bigger crowd on hand for the setting up of the big tent than there was for the night performance.

School opened as usual at the LCT and this picture shows the modern way to go to school — by bus... lots of buses. Hundreds of students from a wide area around Lindsay are brought to the school by bus daily.

Unusual alliance

An unusual alliance developed in Lindsay last summer when a crow and a hound became good friends.

The year was hard on cash

The year 1961 was hard on the cash reserves of the Royal Canadian Legion at Lindsay. It was invaded twice by thieves who made off with over ten thousand dollars on the first visit but fared not so well on the succeeding visit. Legion President Jack James and former secretary Lloyd Burrows look glumly at the empty cash boxes which were rifled when the safe was blown open early in the year.

In case you had forgotten...

In case you had forgotten, 1961 saw one of the biggest and most spectacular street parades in years when Royal Black Knights invaded the town from several Ontario centres... A trail-load coming from the Toronto area showed and touching off the day's celebration by a parade from the station to the main street. A sudden wind and rain storm after the parade put a damper on some of the high spirits but the revelry resumed soon afterwards.

They talked about water

The men seen sitting around the tables in the picture above were talking about water—the lack of it in Minden. Many residents were caught with frozen water pipes when the level of Gull River which bleeds the village fell abnormally low and exposed them to severe frosts. Indignation ran high and finally spread to Etterboro which objected to its industries being placed in the position of being short of water power for generating purposes to accommodate the high-land resort area. The issue has lain dormant for a while but may flare up again in 1962.

Town Clerk retires

Town Clerk for many years at Lindsay, during several of which he was on the executive of the Ontario Municipal Association, William R. Aldby (seated) officially laid down his pen in 1961. During his career as town clerk, Mr. Aldby received many compliments on his efficiency and taught dozens of incoming councillors the procedure in dealing with municipal matters. He is still regarded as a living encyclopedia on municipal affairs. Mayor Jos. C. Holton studies an old municipal record with the clerk in the picture above.

"Don't bother to make any unless you are prepared..."

Chicago, Ill. -- "Don't!" Stone suggested this resolution to make any New Year's resolutions unless you are prepared to make a resolution every single day of the year. This was the advice given today by a Chicago insurance executive to his company staff.

of more than 1,400 salesmen throughout the United States. "Resolutions are of little value if they are not made, and kept each day," said W. Clement Stone, president of the Combined Insurance Company of America, with home office in Chicago.

"Stone explained that all of the resolutions should be aimed at both short and long range objectives."

"The short range objectives," he explained, "are those which can be achieved in a day by doing a little better than you did yesterday."

"But in addition daily resolutions also are highly important if one is to achieve his long range objectives in life," he said.

"First, it is the daily life of a person that lays the foundation for the long term achievements," Stone explained further. "By making and following resolutions daily, a person also acquires a habit of self discipline that is extremely important."

"In other words, a person, through daily resolutions, fortifies his courage of being honest with himself. Resolutions represent a contract a person makes with himself."

"It is wrong for anyone to break a contract made with someone else, but it is equally as bad for a person to break a contract with himself."

As the first New Year's Day,

The One Big Storm Was An Ice Storm

The one big storm of 1961 which did extensive damage throughout the district was an ice storm which swept through late in February. Bell Telephone crews had their hands full of fallen wires and their work cut out for several days as they replaced shattered poles and restored service. This picture was taken on the Little Britain road.

Following was a very nice "Winter" a group recitation set also to the pupils for their own. "Angels We Have Heard on High" prior to the concluding recitation by Karen Demore of thanks and "God Bless each one of you!" in poetry form and in all attendance.

Mrs. Victor Webster played the accompaniment for several of the musical selections and Claus.

1961: Year Canada Took Stock

National stock taking during past year touched all Canadians - even those who over-looked the law. New Penitentiary Act calling for training programs, new institutions, is reflected in work of National Parole Board. Above, from left, J. Alex Edmondson, Q.C., Edward Dion, Q.C., George Street, Q.C., M. Louis Lynch, Frank P. Miller.

Population census in June means a count of heads from coast to coast and up to the far Arctic. Here, a member of the R.C.M.P. makes an extra patrol acting as enumerator to tally up northern citizens. Census covered private homes, hotels, institutions, armed services, Canadians abroad.

Steady on course for the new year, Canadians can now look back over the wake left through the choppy seas of 1961. Despite the blizzard months, the track across the first year of the decade is etched with the soothing oil of calm appraisal.

A mosaic of sober studies into many phases of Canadian life. Last year Canada took stock. Surveys, polls and conferences hit an all-time high. Among the surveys carried out in 1961, were a population census, a conference on national resources for the future, a full-scale Arctic expedition and a northern wildlife survey. The spotlight shined on Canadians as the treatment of criminals, the railways, national health, adult education, manpower and employment, mental illness and religion. The results from these searching inquiries will provide Canadians with a vivid, three-dimensional picture of the nation. Briefly,

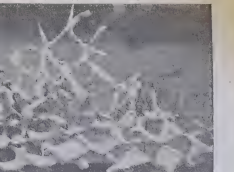

Three years of Canada's Polar Continental Shelf Project advanced the vital work of seabed research and discovery in ourling Queen Elizabeth Islands. Investigations ranged from sub-marine geology of the sea bed to insect life, as Canadians settle down for the long haul through the winter, they find a better chance for keeping physically fit through the new Fitness and Amateur Sport Act, because hope for new ideas by the idea and knowledge stemming from the Third World Congress of Psychiatry (held in Montreal), plans for solving future economic problems by the Special Committee of the Senate on Manpower and Employment.

Expedition's aim is to build a storehouse of Arctic knowledge for Canada. Above, helicopters stand by as master Decca station on Ellesmere Island.

Growing concern about improving the use of and safeguarding the future of Canada's renewable resources, drew together all eleven Canadian governments, business interests and experts for a conference. Aptly named "Resources for Tomorrow," the meeting took place in Montreal, October 23-28, may mark biggest stock taking of all time.

Canadian Conference of the Arts, first national meeting of artists, poets, writers and the public, drew varied reactions. John Adaskin, Canadian commentator, thought it "eminently successful." Quipped Harold Town, Toronto artist, above, "I still don't know what it was all about, but it was better than having a cold."

In the Arctic Islands a cadre of biologists makes an aerial survey of muskoxen, caribou, other animals. Leader of five-man, two-plane party, Dr. John Tenn, left, discusses day's work with pilot Ken McEwen.

Increased tourist revenue visualized from Trent travel

Increased tourist revenue resulting from modernization of the Trent Canal System is visualized by Clayton W. Hodgson, MP for this riding.

Now regarded as one of the greatest inland waterways in Canada, Mr. Hodgson predicts the popularity of the canal system will continue to grow. Last week the federal member announced that twelve million dollars is to be spent on rebuilding parts of the Trent Canal System and of this huge amount a very considerable sum is to be expended in Victoria County. Mr. Hodgson has vigorously put forward his vision of an improved water route for tourists.

Landmark on the Trent Canal's northern bank at Lindsay, the old lockmaster's house will give to modernization of the system.

District Forestry Report

Senior Conservation Officer P. W. Swanson announces that once again under joint sponsorship of the Lindsay District Trappers Council and the Department of Lands and Forests, Lindsay, a series of three trapping and fur pelting courses will be held at three locations in the Lindsay District.

The first of these is at Minden on January 15, 1962, at 8:00 p.m. at the Minden Rod and Gun Club building, 1/4 mile north of Minden on west side of Highway 353.

Several Minden area trappers have agreed to give advice and instruction on successful trapping methods for catching beaver under the fur pelting techniques will not be demonstrated by trappers from Haliburton and Wilberforce. It is hoped that Mr. Cam Currie, Manager of the O.T.A. Fur Sales Service at North Bay will be present to discuss fur grading and marketing with the trappers.

Future meeting along similar lines are planned for Kirkfield and Hawkeston later in the month. These courses are held in the hopes that trappers will be able to pick up some pointers which will enable them to prepare better class pelts and that realize more for their efforts. Interested trappers are all invited to attend the course closest to them.

ARRIVES IN MOSCOW

A Soviet aircraft carrying the passengers of the Belgian jetliner grounded in Soviet Armenia has arrived in Moscow. The Belgian plane was forced to land in southern Russia Monday when it apparently strayed over the Soviet-Turkish border on a flight to Istanbul. The Russian plane flew from Grouzy, in the Russian Federal Republic, where the passengers, including three Americans had been held.

MEETS WITH CABINET

French President De Gaulle meets with his cabinet today to consider the grave threat to his government from the Algerian rebels and the rightwing secret army organization. Informed sources say the violence in Algeria will be the most urgent matter on the cabinet's agenda. The government spokesman said last night that 20 persons were killed and 18 wounded in 13 terrorist attacks throughout Algeria yesterday.

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS

Radio free Europe reports that Albania would like to establish diplomatic relations with any interested Western country. The radio said its monitors picked up a Red broadcast on the subject, quoting what it said was an editorial in a Communist paper. Albania currently is at odds with the Kremlin.

PRESSURED ENOUGH

Government sources at The Hague say Holland feels it has been pressured enough and consequently will stiffen its position on West New Guinea. The sources say continuous attacks by Indonesian President Sukarno have prompted the action and that he now is committed to start a "colonial war" over the territory.

11 MORE ARRESTS

City and Royal Canadian Mounted Police say they expect to make 11 more arrests following yesterday's roundup of 23 persons allegedly involved in illegal trafficking of narcotics. Vancouver police are also preparing for a stepped up crackdown by pan-Canadian drug addicts. Known infidels say the price of heroin has doubled the normal five dollars per capsule since the arrests started.

CHANG DO YOUNG SENTENCED TO DEATH

A South Korean military court today sentenced to death Lieutenant General Chang Do Young, former South Korean Army Chief of Staff, Chang, who also was powerful in the military coup which seized power in South Korea last year, was charged with missing his power in the early days of the revolt. Four other officers were sentenced to life terms, four to 15-year terms, four to 10-year terms and one to a five year term. Chang's former secretary was also sentenced to death and nine others were acquitted.

ELECT ALLEN

Controller William Allen has been elected to succeed the retiring Fred Gardiner as "super mayor" of Metropolitan Toronto. Allen lost out to New Norman Goodhead of suburban Etobicoke by a vote of 14 to 10. Allen is a veteran of 12 elections by the city council and will receive an annual salary of 23-thousand dollars as Metro chairman.

SUCCESSFUL

The British Canine Defense League announced today it will fight to save the life of a dog condemned to death by a Canadian court for biting a man. League President Bernard Workman said a study of the transcripts of a magistrate's court hearing in Windsor, Ontario last September had led him to believe an appeal against the sentence would be successful.

ONE THIRD OF BLOCK DESTROYED

Fire destroyed one-third of a business block last night in Port Dover, Ontario. Strong winds fanned the blue-believed to have started in the kitchen of a restaurant and it spread to five adjoining stores and a head apartment. There were no injuries and other than one case of frustration.

War, peacetime IODE services recounted at chapter meeting

The January meeting of the Lady Hughes Chapter, IODE, was held in the IOOF Hall, with the Regent, Mrs. A.G. Corneil presiding.

Excellent reports were read by the secretary, Mrs. D. Scott and the treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Hays. Educational Secretary, Mrs. A. Patterson informed the members of the Christmas gifts sent to the adopted child at Kenney. A letter of thanks from Larry Layle, winner of the $200 bursary awarded at the ICI conference, was read.

Mrs. Scott read a letter from Provincial headquarters, which gave a complete review of the work done by the Order during the past year.

Empire and World Affairs

An interesting article, entitled "Why I am a Member of the IODE," which appeared in the December issue of "Echoes," the official publication of the Order.

Mention was made of the work done by the members in the two Great Wars of this century. In peacetime, too, service is the keyword of the Order through its committees of Education, Social Service, Immigration and Citizenship, Hospitality, Canadian Eskimo Project, and Services at Home and Abroad. Many women join the IODE because they want to participate in the national effort of aiding gifted young Canadians through scholarships, bursaries and loans, as well as the Trust Funds raised by the Order to perpetuate the memory of the war dead.

Though world turmoil has created many changes, the pattern of work in the IODE has not these changes, and it is still able to provide common ground for the interest and need of Canadian Women to serve their country.

Mrs. Corneil thanked the members who had supplied cars to drive residents of the Victoria Girls' Home on the annual Christmas week tour, to see the decorative lighting of the town.

Following the report of the nominating committee, the meeting adjourned.

Rev. C. R. Wragg of Cannington, chairman of the Presbytery, conducted a service and gave a splendid message to the new gathering, older ministers attending and taking part were Rev. J. F. Lane of Oakwood and Rev. M. C. Fisher of Fenton Falls. Following the close of the service, refreshments

20 PRIESTS REPORTED MURDERED

Twenty Belgian Roman Catholic priests reportedly have been murdered by Congolese soldiers in Northern Katanga. United Nations sources said the priests were beaten with bicycle chains before being shot to death New Year's day. The bodies were dismembered by a Congolese youth gang, and the remains thrown into a river. Officers in Leopoldville said the troops who participated in the massacre may have been from the same unit involved in the slaying of 13 Italian U.S. airmen late last year in the Congo.

WAVE OF VIOLENCE

Terrorist bombing that killed 10 Moslems last night has started a wave of anti-European violence in the Eastern Algerian port of Rion. Police say a Moslem mob beat a European to death with a shovel while and set fire to an oil supply dump and an automobile. Police and troops barricaded have been set up in efforts to keep the city's Arabs and Europeans apart. The bombing killed 10 and injured 10 Moslems last night.

SHAKEN UP

The Government of the Dominican Republic was shaken up last night when President Balaguer resigned and a new military-civilian junta took charge. Late word says Balaguer is at liberty but that four other members who resigned have been placed under arrest. Meanwhile, a curfew was clamped on the city of Santo Domingo following yesterday's demonstration which saw five anti-government agitators killed and at least 12 wounded. Fresh uprisings are expected today.

ARRIVE IN HOLLANDA

Dutch officials in West New Guinea say 12 of the 50 Indonesian prisoners taken in Monday's naval encounter off West New Guinea have arrived at Hollandia. Three of the prisoners were hospitalized with serious wounds. A Dutch officer says one of the prisoners has admitted the Indonesian units were on route to military action in West New Guinea.

FINISHING TOUCHES

Finalizing touches are being made in Ottawa for tomorrow's opening of parliament. The cabinet has held several meetings this week and Prime Minister John Diefenbaker says he has his three speech ready. The speech traditionally contains the legislative program for the session to follow.

HEARING RESUMES

The hearing resumes in Chicago today for three men charged with trying to dispose of bonds stolen in the 18-and-a-half million dollar robbery in 1958 at the Bruckville, Ontario Trust and Savings Company. The three are charged along with another American with trying to set up a front to dispose of the bonds in Europe.

ASSES DAMAGE

Damage is being assessed today in the wake of the gale force winds that ripped across the Maritime Provinces yesterday. Nine Royal Canadian Navy warships, delayed by the storm, are scheduled to sail today to take part in the Atlantic command's winter exercises near Bermuda.

DISCUSSIONS CONTINUE

Representatives of France and Tunisia met for one-half hour today as discussions continued over the French Naval base in Bizerte. Observers say the Tunisians are not satisfied with French terms as to when the present International "Emergency" should be considered over. Tunisia is trying to talk the French into giving up the strategic Air and Naval base.

ONE DAY MEETING

Prime Minister Macmillan and Foreign Minister Lord Home are representing Britain. Among the topics to be discussed at the London get-together are the Common Market, Berlin, the future of the U.N. and East-West relations in general.

Olivia, Jan. 11. (UPI)—The Canadian field soldier will have a new look uniform, says a headquarter's announcement Thursday that new combat clothing, designed for all-weather use, will be issued to the Army in about 12 months. The first units to be issued will be the field units, and the new uniform will be able to stand up to a minimum of about 18 months hard wear before wearing out.

An Army spokesman in Ottawa said the new uniform which avoids the major summer-winter change over, represents the biggest change in the uniform since it was introduced in 1959.

The production is expected to begin "almost immediately" in non-operational dress.

A new face will be seen Mr. Walroth were old friends, both attending the Faculty of Forestry at the University of Toronto at the same time. "He was, however, a year senior to me," he said. "However, we've known each other since then and have been in contact with each other ever since."

Mr. Walroth graduated from the U. of T. in 1949 and has been in this office since 1955. He was promoted to regional forester last week in February and covers the districts of Lindsay, Wendigo, Pembroke, and Algonquin.

from other parties. Our school board has to receive final permission from the Department of Education in Toronto on the tender bids and Victoria will be approved before March bills approved before March word from the Department of 1963. This school is being Municipal Affairs, on the venture issue." Mr. Dix confirmed. "It is not likely to be on the Government crash program for training students in vocational fields."

Much credit was given to the members of the Presbytery as well as to all those who served on the various Provisional Committees, for the insight, thought and energy devoted to setting up this new organization.

Kiwianen listened to a fascinating story of the development and phenomenal growth of the chemical business in relation to plastics on Tuesday. The speaker was Mr. Douglas Wakeington of the Canadian Industries Ltd. The guest speaker also addressed a meeting of the student body at Lindsay Collegiate Institute and a district home and school rally at Parkview School.

Mr. Wakeington was introduced by Kiwanian Les Porter and thanked by Past President, Gord Cook.

Don't favor more calls for prisoners

Lindsay County Council petitioned Victoria Municipal Council to approve a resolution calling for prisoners in jails being allowed to have visitors.

At present, Victoria went along with the appeal from the Minister of Reform Institutions not to change present regulations. A change to two phone calls and a meeting head, would lead to greatly increased costs and in large jail might even lead to break-outs.

Bridge request to be studied

Lindsay Council's application to have the white bridge on Lindsay street, S., taken over by Victoria County was sent on for a report from the road system committee. Engineer Wilford thought that now that the bridge is within the town limits, the Ontario Highway Department might assume maintenance as a connecting link. If not, the town would be quite justified in having the county assume maintenance.

Explains why grants sought

Reve Murphy of Carden and Beardsley, Dalziel enlighten new members of Victoria Council regarding the reason for the usual grant to the Northern Townships. Former Warden Ed. Murphy stated that the grants have been made for many years, one reason being that although the northern townships have no county roads yet the townships contribute to the system.

Reve Childs said that the northern townships seldom have patients in the Lindsay hospital and very few inmates in the jails, but they pay into the county for general maintenance and debentures.

Mrs. E. McLellan speaks at B & PW

The January meeting of the Lindsay Branch of the B & PW Women's Club was held at the Lockview Steak House and Dining Room, where a delicious dinner was served to approximately 40 members and guests. The mystery draw, donated by Marjorie Corley and by Joanne McLellan, was the special speaker for the evening was Mrs. E. McLellan, Director, Women's Activities.

Mrs. William Graham

Penelope Falls (PNS) — Mrs. William Graham passed away suddenly at her home, Bond St. E., Penelope Falls, on Sunday, December 31, 1961. Although of advanced age, Mrs. Graham had not been in poor health, so that her death came as a shock to relatives and friends. She was the widow of Mr. William Graham, a well known resident of Sargoon Point for many years.

Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Graham was Miss Mabel Lippett of Lindsay. She was married in 1874 in Orillia and came to the Rythe community to teach school. In 1913 she was married to Wm. Graham, and they made their home on the farm until 1958 when she moved into the village.

She was predeceased by her sister, Miss Flora Lippett, B.N. and a brother, Mr. John Lippett, both of Toronto.

A of gentle serene temperament, kind and pleasant in manner, Mrs. Graham was highly regarded by all who knew her.

The funeral services at the Platten Funeral Home on January 2nd, were conducted by her pastor, Mr. E. Potter, of Immanuel Baptist Church.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Oscar Graham, Eade Graham, Guy Graham, Allen Graham, Douglas Clark and Gratton Rutherford.

Interment was in Penelope Falls Cemetery vault.

Beautiful floral tributes from relatives, neighbours and friends banded the casket.

Branch, Ontario Department of Transport, Highway Safety Division. Mrs. McLellan stressed the importance and increasing demand for the participation of every driver in the programs of safety on the highways. Every driver is responsible for his own safety and that of his passengers, and in this regard she recommended the installation of safety belts in every car. It has been proved, is a measure that can and will reduce the fatalities and injuries suffered in highway accidents. Statistics show, Mrs. McLellan said, a reduction in the number of accidents, but an increase in deaths and injuries.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Harriet Bate, Chairman, Speakers' Committee, and followed by Mrs. Joyce Vardie.

Following Mrs. McLellan's speech a short business session was held, during which the President, Mrs. L. Macdonald, announced the plans for the International Night to be held at the Lindsay Library. Tickets for the annual Easter Fair to New York were distributed by the Chairman of the Project Committee, Miss M. Margaret Lock and Doris Rutherford. There being no further business, the meeting closed with the Club Collection.

The Undesirable

"As well as the quantity of sewage there is the problem of injurious and excessive amounts of industrial wastes. In this regard, we recommend that Viking Limited treat their own wastes and discharge directly to the creek. Failing this, we suggest that their wastes be pre-treated to bring them into a condition that they can be satisfactorily handled by the municipal system."

"A sewage bylaw should be enacted forthwith to control both the quantity and quality of sewage to be treated."

Our drawings portraying the sewer system are as follows:
Present Sewerage System:
One proposal for a future sewer system, A second proposal for future sewage collection.

Both these alternatives will retain the usefulness of the present sewer installations. At the same time some relief from excessive flows will be afforded the present installations and the majority of future development will be gravitated to the sewage disposal facility.

A fixed program on sewage collection is required if the Town is not to be required to treat excessive quantities of sewage over the long term.

The immediate problem of sewage treatment has been considered under a number of alternatives. In appraising this problem the following points should be kept in mind:

(1) The present plant is in a poor state of repair and remedial works may be a total waste.

(2) The present plant affords only primary treatment and complete treatment will be required in the future by the O. W. R. C.

(3) Lagoons afford complete treatment.

(4) Any construction carried out before March 31, 1983 is eligible for a Federal loan amounting to 2/3 of the total cost with 1/3 of such loan to be repaid by the Federal Government.

"We have studied the problem of sewage disposal under six alternatives which are expanded on in detail in the body of our report. They are:

A Repair and Expansion of the Existing Plant and giving a lot of people were wondering about the "guarantee" aspect of any new approach to the sewage disposal problem at Lindsay. "Unfortunately," he said, "we have been stung in the past even though the present system was installed under the Sanitation Branch of the Ontario Dept. of Health."

B Complete Treatment at this time.

C Lagoon Treatment Adjacent to the Present Plant

D Lagoon Treatment remote from Proposed development.

E A combination of the present plant repaired with Lagoons.

"Under Alternative A there is the problem of structural instability of the present digester and clarifier. It has been suggested by O. W. R. C. personnel that inspections over the past 10 years indicated structural deficiencies which cannot be seen at this time. If this should be the case plant repair costs become very high."

"Recent discussions with the O.W.R.C. indicate that chlorination of effluent will be required if Bobcaygeon uses the lake as a source of supply for municipal water. With primary treatment only, chlorination costs are very high and make the annual costs of primary treatment in excess of lagoon alternatives at this time."

"The future lagoon type treatment is by far the most economical."

We have no doubt at all it will work." Mr. South noted that if, for example, a high cyanide content were to be dumped into the system, it would bog down, but only under such extreme circumstances.

Many Wondering

Mayor Joseph Hutton said about the "guarantee" aspect of any new approach to the sewage disposal problem at Lindsay. "Unfortunately," he said, "we have been stung in the past even though the present system was installed under the Sanitation Branch of the Ontario Dept. of Health."

Apparently some big errors were made. . . We still owe $244,000, almost the total capital cost of the present plant which has broken down. There is a feeling here we should have quite a bit of assurance from the Ontario Water Resources Commission. . . I and answered his own question: Hutton said, "It would appear as if I don't think on Bull there was incomplete supervision from the standpoint of the consultants and that is why we have suggested that any remedial proposals be presented as if you were taking over the operation of the plant."

"THE POST", LINDSAY, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY SIXT, 1982

Weak Supervision

Referring again to the present faulty plant, Mayor Mr. South said things had changed greatly since the Dept. of Health handled sewage and sanitation matters. Under it there was only one man looking over all plants in Ontario, he declared. Supervision has improved tremendously under the Ontario Water Resources Commission, he pointed out, noting that the commission has an engineering staff to assist in planning, construction and operation. "You certainly will get a lot better supervision," he assured the mayor.

DO IT NOW!

EVERYONE CAN HELP

Think about it . . . your neighbor may be experiencing the results of a lay-off period. Make an inventory of jobs that you know can be undertaken today . . . talk about the matter with your friends . . . a few jobs for a few men now can combine to make a big job for many men.

PROCLAMATION

By virtue of the authority vested in me, I earnestly request the wholehearted co-operation of the citizens in the "LET'S DO IT NOW" campaign of the National Employment Service, in order to eliminate as much as possible, the seasonal employment problem.

There are many jobs such as remodeling, rebuilding, repair work, etc., that can be done more economically now and you will not experience the inconveniences of delays in having the work completed at this time of the year.

Do your part now in alleviating seasonal unemployment by having that job done now and you will help not only your fellow citizens, but the Town as a whole in achieving a balanced economy.

LET'S DO IT NOW

MEAT MAGIC

Meats are such an important part of our meals, that the whole menu is usually planned around them. They need not be expensive, suggests the Food Department of Macdonald Institute College.

Look for delicious and different ways of serving the less expensive cuts. Although usually less tender, they are as high in food value as those pieces which cost more. For best results, long, slow cooking is necessary. Temperature in a moist heat is required. Braising or stewing is recommended.

In the recipe below 1 pound of cubed lamb, beef, or pork may be substituted for the beef, and hot water, instead of stock, may be used.

Curried Chicken For Four

Appointments to the staff of the Ontario Girls' Training School have to be announced before April. This was made known here by J. A. Graham, deputy minister of reform institutions, in a telephone interview.

Mr. Graham gave an outline of how much staff would be needed for the school. "When it is first opened, we will probably need 20 to 40 staff members. This breaks down to about one staff for every two girls."

The positions which are open are the superintendent, supervisors, teachers, nurses and maintenance personnel. Mr. Graham said that he would be responsible for the selection of staff for every ten girls in school.

Use it for business purposes eight years, ordered to stop

A Lindsay real estate agent and two as a real estate agent, has been told he can no longer conduct business from his residence.

George Dent, Elgin St. resident, agent for Town and Country Real Estate, says he received a letter from Zoning Administrator James Zilman last week telling him he is breaking the law. Mr. Dent quoted the letter as follows: "It has been drawn to my attention you are conducting a real estate business from your home which is a residential area.

In contravention of zoning by-law 2978 an order is hereby issued to you to cease these operations at once. I will call around in two or three days to see if you have complied."

The real estate agent says he can't understand the development. "I have been doing business from my home for nearly eight years without any trouble," he said. "I have been using a camera as a photographer for which I paid a business tax.

Emphasize bulk buying, especially of meats RMH governor urges Greater emphasis should be placed on bulk buying, especially of meats, is urged by Col. R. M. Moore to fellow members of the Ross Memorial Hospital's board of directors Thursday night.

"I think," he declared, "we could get better prices if we were to scout around for bulk buying."

It was suggested by another member of the board that tender offers should be sought on meats which are for other equipment in the hospital.

Col. Moore explained that he nearly all the food is bought by tender.

"Meats are the most costly bulk purchase," he said.

In-service education program offers special refresher course

The in-service education program which is in operation at the Ross Memorial Hospital will be offering a special refresher course this course, it was announced by a hospital official, will be run by the nursing department in co-operation with the medical staff and the special service departments.

The course consists of 21 sessions, beginning on January 16th, and will continue until June 6th, of this year. It was stated that lectures are being given both by hospital staff and even so that those who are on shift work in the hospital can avail themselves of the special course. The course is primarily designed for relief nurses, but the regular staff is also urged to take the course. It was suggested by the official that this be done, as they may be getting a special refresher course.

Credits for the course, is given by Miss Camlin, the director of nursing, and Miss Mills, the head of the in-service education programme, both who have spent a good deal of time studying the course and making the arrangements for the lectures.

By the way, do you know when the first commercial service telephone was put into service in 1878 in New Haven, Conn. It had 21 subscribers. But the regular staff is

High-level grain feeding study for dairy cows

The Ontario Department of Agriculture is trying to find the answer to the question: does it pay to feed milking cows much larger quantities of grain than have been previously recommended?

There is no simple answer. Those who are advising more grain claim that some cows with high producing ability can convert grain into milk economically, up to a feeding of 40 to 50 pounds of grain per day.

Ontario Department of Agriculture livestock scientists like Dr. J. B. Some feel that "the percentage of cows that can do this is not too great" in most farm situations.

In order to study how much extra milk a cow will produce by feeding extra grain, Dr. Some is testing 3 groups of cows at the Ontario Agricultural Experiment Station.

The first group will be fed forage and 1 pound of grain for approximately 35 pounds of milk. The second group will be fed forage and 10 pounds of grain for 40 pounds of milk. The third group will receive 5 pounds of hay, 25 pounds of alfalfa, and all the grain they want. The results of this work will be reported to Ontario farmers when they are available.

Dr. Some suggests this home trial of your want to test the economics of heavier grain feeding.

He told it with cows having the highest milk ability. "I test it on cows which are early in their lactation (last period) and they will be looked for in the future."

He said the test will be adjusted the protein content of the grain ration to the level of 10 to 12 percent of roughage being fed.

"To increase the grain ration 2 pounds at a time and continue to do this as long as the cows respond by increasing her milk production."

He said the test will be continued for 12 weeks and will be concluded in July of this year. The course runs over the next 12 months.

Miss Fleet said the trainees follow a curriculum which is approved by the Ontario Department of Health in Toronto.

She said the course will "receive theoretical classroom instructions and also practical work in the wards under careful supervision."

According to reports, this course has proved to be highly successful in other Ontario hospitals, and Miss Fleet said she thought it would be successful here too.
